April 7, 2006, Seoul, Korea

WAKO – IAKSA MERGED ORGANIZATION ACCEPTED BY GAISF

The newly merged “WAKO/IAKSA” Federation “WAKO” announced that it has been accepted as a member of the “General Association of International Sports Federations” (GAISF). The General Assembly of GAISF was held at the Grand Intercontinental Hotel in Seoul, Korea today.

“Acceptance of the Kickboxing Sport by GAISF is a great achievement for Kickboxing athletes around the world. I have been waiting for this to happen for 13 years. The benefits for every National Federation and every Athlete will be astonishing” commented Ennio Falsoni, WAKO President.

Both Ennio Falsoni, WAKO President and Horst Prelog, IAKSA President and newly appointed WAKO Vice President are very excited by the acceptance and expressed their confidence in the new “WAKO” and its Members.

“Putting aside the differences and doing the right things is our task.” commented Horst Prelog in his speech to the General Assembly. “We welcome every Kickboxing Organization to join us”
